POPE LEO XIV CALLS FOR CONSISTORY

With the announcement that Pope Leo XIV convenes his first Extraordinary Consistory of Cardinals Jan. 7–8; this marks a significant moment in the new pontificate. The meeting will take place just one day after the Pope closes the Holy Door of St. Peter's Basilica on Jan. 6, the Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord. What is a consistory? The word "consistory" comes from the Latin consistorium, a term used in ancient Rome to describe the emperor's private council, composed of his closest advisers. This body was known as the sacrum consistorium, the "sacred council."

The Catholic Church adopted this concept to describe a formal assembly of the College of Cardinals, the body that assists the Pope in the governance of the universal Church. The term derives from the Latin word consistere, meaning "to stand," referring to the posture of advisers in the presence of the emperor, the only one who remained seated on his throne. The Pope gathers the cardinals, both electors and non-electors, to advise, deliberate, and collaborate on matters affecting the life and mission of the Church.

Ordinary vs. extraordinary consistories.

Under the 1983 Code of Canon Law, consistories are classified into two principal categories:

Ordinary Consistories:

These generally involve cardinals residing in Rome and are convened to address routine matters or to carry out solemn papal acts, such as the creation of new cardinals or the canonization of saints.

Extraordinary Consistories:

These involve cardinals from around the world and are convoked to address grave or urgent matters of broader significance for the Church. Their purpose is to encourage collegial consultation and shared discernment on major issues, including curial reform or significant pastoral challenges.

Pope Leo XIV has chosen to convene an extraordinary consistory for his first such gathering, indicating a desire for wider participation by the College of Cardinals.

Discussion will be based on Evangelization and work of the Roman curia.

GAME NIGHT

Are you game?

Come one, come all to the first Family Game Night at Saint Theresa Church. Join us on the Family Weekend on Saturday, February 14 in the parish hall.

Play Euchre, Bridge, War, Crazy Eights, bring your board games, bring your imagination. Let's have fun together, no tickets, no fees, no age limit, just families enjoying time together with other parishioners. Some interactive challenging games will be organized by the Social Outreach Committee.

Donations will be accepted for the Heart and Stroke Foundation. Light refreshments will be served, games will start after the 4:30 mass.

SAINT OF THE DAY:

St. John Neumann

(January 5th)

Saint John Neumann was born in what is now the Czech Republic. After studying in Prague, he came to New York at 25 and was ordained a priest. He did missionary work in New York until he was 29, when he joined the Redemptorists and became its first member to profess vows in the United States. He continued missionary work in Maryland, Virginia and Ohio, where he became popular with the Germans.

At 41, as bishop of Philadelphia, he organized the parochial school system into a diocesan one, increasing the number of pupils almost twentyfold within a short time.

Gifted with outstanding organizing ability, he drew into the city many teaching communities of sisters and the Christian Brothers. During his brief assignment as vice provincial for the Redemptorists, he placed them in the forefront of the parochial movement.

Well-known for his holiness and learning, spiritual writing and preaching, on October 13, 1963, Saint John Neumann became the first American bishop to be beatified. Canonized in 1977, he is buried in St. Peter the Apostle Church in Philadelphia.

Reflection:

Neumann took seriously our Lord's words, "Go and teach all nations." From Christ he received his instructions and the power to carry them out. For Christ does not give a mission without supplying the means to accomplish it. The Father's gift in Christ to John Neumann was his exceptional organizing ability, which he used to spread the Good News.
