THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (Year C)

First Reading: Wisdom 11.22-12.2

You are merciful to all, for you love all things that exist.

Second Reading: 2 Thessalonians 1.11 – 2.2

May the name of our Lord Jesus Christ be glorified in you, and you in him.

Gospel: Luke 19.1-10

The Son of Man came to seek out and save the lost.

Prayer for Vocations: Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time - October 30. That the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in all those chosen to follow Him as priests, deacons or in the consecrated life and that they in turn will be glorified for their faithfulness to His call, we pray to the Lord.

St. Theresa Parish welcomes Nora Ray Salinas and Alexandra Elizabeth Andronek baptized this Sunday into our Christian community.

"Be sure that you first preach by the way you live. If you do not, people will notice that you say one thing, but live otherwise, and your words will bring only cynical laughter and a derisive shake of the head."

St. Charles Borromeo.

INDIGENOUS RECONCILIATION FUND

All the money raised during “A Christ-Centred, Co-Journey Towards Healing” will stay in our local communities. Indigenous Groups and Organizations such as Kateri Native Ministry located in Ottawa and the North American Travelling College located in Akwesasne will be able to apply for grants for such things as culture and language revitalization, education and community building. Projects may include programs that offer training and leadership formation to Indigenous communities, curation of oral histories and a curriculum for school-aged children to teach language and share their Indigenous culture. Your generosity in prayer and through your sacrificial gift, will make this possible.

Please prayerfully consider giving to this special collection sponsored by the Archdiocese next weekend, November 5 and 6. Special envelopes for this collection have been inserted in the bulletins this weekend.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

The response for the Food Bank from our parish has been amazing. Some of you, however, might find it hard to donate money in these difficult times but perhaps when you are shopping you may be able to pick up an extra box of soup, a box of cereal or skim milk powder. Peanut Butter is desperately needed. In Centretown, toilet paper and toiletries are also in short supply. Perhaps a visit to a dollar store might help with a bargain or two. We will have baskets at the rear of the church for any donations for the food bank. Once a month they will be part of the offertory. Your help is greatly appreciated. Our neighbours, our friends.

CHURCH BULLETIN ADVERTISING

Beginning the week of November 11th, Liturgical Publications will be setting up the advertisements which appear on the back page of our parish bulletin. The advertising will begin in January 2023. Please consider advertising your product or service to continue supporting the free publication of our bulletin. Call Liturgical Publications at 1-800-268- 2637 for full details.
