REMEMBRANCE DAY – NOVEMBER 11TH

Canadians pause in silence on Remembrance Day to remember those who died in war & to pray for the victims of aggression and inhumanity throughout the world.

It is a day to pray for peace, to consider what we are doing as individuals, as a community and as a nation to bring God's peace into the world.

It is a day when a believing community should rededicate itself by prayer and action to the ideals Jesus gives us in the Beatitudes.
