CHRISTMAS SUPPORT FOR IMMIGRANTS

This month, Pope Francis asks us to pray for the children who are suffering, especially those who are victims of war. These refugee children in our city have experienced unspeakable horrors of war, and many are separated from family, from their fathers who remained behind. This Christmas the people of St. Theresa's can bring a little joy to these children, ensuring that each one will have a gift to open Christmas morning. Your generous cash donations will be used to purchase gifts, which will then be distributed by the Catholic Centre for Immigrants, to the most needy families in Ottawa. Cash donations are being accepted at the Sunday liturgies until December 4. Thank you for your continuing support.

TOURTIÈRES FUNDRAISER

The Knights of Columbus are selling home-made tourtières for $13 (1 large pie or 3 small pies) until December 11. Proceeds will go towards maintenance of the parish and other charities. Roger Richard will be accepting orders by phone (613-277-5423) or by email (roger-richard@rogers.com) from now until Nov. 30.

SOCIAL WITH SANTA & TOURTIÈRES

The Knights of Columbus will host a Social with Santa on December 11, 10:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m., in the parish hall. Free for all.
