Special thanks to Roger for his hard work in acquiring for us one beautiful statue of St. Brother Andre which has already been set up over the baptismal water bowl. The second, St. Kateri Tekakwitha is any time to arrive. The statue of Kateri will soon be to affixed on the other side of the baptismal water bowl. Both are Canadian Saints who pray for us. Thank you very much Roger.

CAMINO DE SANTIAGO WALK

On Sunday, March 23, six of the parish children took part in a spiritual walk and visit to the downtown Catholic churches. It was symbolic representation of the Camino de Santiago de Compostella, an 800+ km pilgrimage from France through Portugal to the tomb of St James the Apostle in Spain. This was a spiritual voyage of dedication and commitment to the children's decision to receive first holy Communion and three of the children be confirmed in a beautiful ceremony on Easter Sunday in our parish community of Faith. After the Camino, the children returned to the church for a great lunch provided by the parents and prepared and served by Ching and Roger Richard, Maureen Tracy, Don Coletti and Adrian Manlagnit. There are another set of three children will take part in a ceremony on Mother's Day. Please keep Ariana Weykamp, Pia Dominique Manlagnit, Amilia Knott, Nicholas Dufresne, Lea Coletti and Ilaria Macchione in your prayers.

First Holy Communion was celebrated on Easter Sunday and a number of our children. Receiving the Holy Eucharist for the first time please remember in your prayers, Layla Marie Robinson, Ayvah Card, Lea Coletti, Moli Coletti, Michael Di Carlo, Ismael Di Carlo, McKenna Weykamp and Fiona Shanahan.
