WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

The fourth Sunday of Easter, Christians are invited to reflect on the meaning of God's call and to pray for vocations. Christ the Good Shepherd continues to lead his people through his Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, and calls many to follow him in his way.

There are currently six men in formation for our local clergy, two of whom will be ordained in June. The special collection this weekend allows these men to pursue their calling to the Church and ensures that we can train another generation of priests.
